November 9, 12, 18

Register for one or more nights – different wines each night

OntarioWineReview.com

Campbell House Museum
160 Queen Street West, Toronto
(at Osgoode Subway Stn)

7 – 10 pm

$40 per person, per night

Book all 3 nights and receive an invitation to the “Curiosities of Gewurztraminer” night on November 23.

Over 3 nights in November, guests will choose Ontario’s best Gewurztraminer wines from Ontario’s top vintners. Campbell House Museum will become a “Salon des vins”! Citizens will sniff, swirl, and swallow up to 10 Gewurztraminer wines in a “People’s Choice” contest hosted by Michael Pinkus, the creator of the Ontario Wine Review and our very own “Grape Guy.”

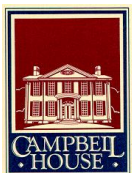

ADMISSION INCLUDES:

- Wine-and-cheese reception by the fire in the historic kitchen
- Tour of the last remaining brick home from the old Town of York, focusing on the pleasures of drinking and dining in early Toronto
- Tasting of up to 10 Gewurztraminer wines from Ontario’s top wineries, in a three-part judging process: Do you like it? Would you buy it? Is it good value?
- Michael Pinkus and guest speakers discuss why Gewurztraminer is one of life’s real pleasures
- “After party” of coffee and dessert, by the kitchen fire
