

Canadian Rajah Galas

Chase Those Deep Winter Blues Away!

The Question on Everyone's Lips this Winter will be:
Are you coming to the exclusive Canadian Rajah Gala?
And then they'll ask: Which one?

Because YOU ARE INVITED to
ONE or BOTH (if you're really a keener)
GALA FUNDRAISERS for The Worldwide Premiere Of
CANADIAN RAJAH by Dave Carley.

THE ECONO GALA | FRIDAY FEBRUARY 1st | 7:30pm

Enjoy the play + Reception afterwards in the amazing ambience of the Campbell House Winter Kitchen. Cash bar but free nibblies from all the major players in the Orange Food Group. An econo-deal at $40 per person.

THE GALA GALA | SATURDAY FEBRUARY 2nd | 7:30pm

It just doesn't get any schmanzier than this. Enjoy the play + the amazing ambience of the Campbell House. Afterwards: hit the Cash bar and nosh on LAVISH nibblies from around the globe, none of it prepared by a playwright. Tickets $50 per lucky person.

About the play, cuz that's what this is funding: Canadian Rajah is premiering in the ballroom of Campbell House (Northwest corner of Queen and University) January 29-February 17.

This new play by Dave Carley tells the incredible and TRUE story of Esca Brooke. He should have been rajah of Sarawak (now part of Malaysia) but was exiled to Madoc, Ontario. And that's just the beginning... The 70 minute play stars two acclaimed actors: Chick Reid and Jon De Leon and is directed by Sarah Phillips.
