Weddings at Campbell House

Campbell House Museum is a historic house located in the heart of downtown Toronto at the northwest corner of Queen and University Avenue. An outstanding example of Georgian architecture, the house sits in a small park surrounded by trees and flower beds, creating a beautiful outdoor setting in the spring and summer months.

With 11-foot ceilings, dark pine floors, and 8-foot windows, combined with an elegant curved staircase plus cozy fireplaces in winter, Campbell House creates the perfect space for timeless and romantic weddings. The house itself can be used in its entirety or select rooms only, depending on the size and style of the event.

The Ballroom

The Ballroom, reached by the curving staircase, is a stylish and sophisticated space for a wedding. The graceful Georgian proportions make this our most adaptable and grandest space. The high ceilings and 5 floor- to-ceiling windows allow for great flexibility for rentals and décor, providing couples the opportunity to impress their own memories into the romantic history of the room.

Capacity:

70 standing, 50 sit-down, or 60 theatre-style.

Dining Room

The original Dining Room in the house, located off the main foyer, is one of the most formal and refined rooms in the House, giving a luxurious and romantic atmosphere to any ceremony or event. The Dining Room has just the right qualities for an intimate wedding ceremony (maximum 30 guests) or a small cocktail reception, which allows for a personal feel within the grandeur.

Capacity:

35 standing, 16 sit-down, or 30 theatre-style.

Withdrawing Room

Painted yellow and green, this cheerful room is the perfect space for hosting a cocktail reception or an intimate wedding ceremony. The Withdrawing Room is located off of the grand entrance hall, below the elegant curved staircase, and is a lovely setting for a warm and personal ceremony.

Capacity:

35 standing, 16 sit-down, or 35 theatre-style.

Robinette Room

Named for the first President of The Advocates' Society, the Robinette Room is on the lower level of the house, creating a warm and intimate environment. The room features a large open fireplace and more contemporary decoration while still retaining the traditional and elegant feel of Campbell House. The Robinette Room is ideal for dinners and/or dancing and so is a charming space for a reception.

Capacity:

45 standing, 35 sit-down, or 40 theatre-style

Historic Kitchen

With its original brick floor and open hearth, the Historic Kitchen has an intimate atmosphere and is lit with the soft glow of candlelight and a roaring fire. It is conveniently located adjacent to the Robinette Room so guests can enjoy cocktails in the Historic Kitchen, and then withdraw to the Robinette Room for dinner. The Historic Kitchen can also be used together with the Robinette Room as an interconnected party space with up to 85 guests.

Capacity:

40 standing, 20 sit-down, or 20 theatre-style

Exclusive Use of House

The option of incorporating all of the rooms listed above, plus both the main floor and second floor foyers, is a wonderful solution for larger cocktail receptions, allowing guests to explore and enjoy the entire house throughout the event.

Capacity:

150 seated throughout the house

Garden

During the spring and summer months the garden surrounding Campbell House is an ideal location for hosting larger outdoor ceremonies or events. The groves of trees, when in leaf and adorned with twinkle lights, create a beautiful and romantic wedding location. A rain plan must be discussed prior to the event; we recommend renting a tent for any outdoor event.

Wedding Photography

Whether you are looking for creative portraits or classic, timeless photography, Campbell House offers many opportunities for delightful engagement and wedding photos. From natural light-filled rooms to exposed brickwork, our venue offers a variety of backdrops that can satisfy any artistic vision.

Included in your rental fee is the house and grounds for photography on the day of your event.
